ECC Prisma for Commodities: Update on Parallel Run Schedule

ECC will postpone the start of the parallel run previously scheduled for 19 October 2026, due to ongoing tests and quality assurance measures

We are currently finalising the revised schedule. The new start date and updated project milestones will be shared with you in due course.

Any test preparations or readiness activities you have already initiated remain valid.

We apologise for any inconvenience this adjustment may cause to your planning.

Should you have any immediate questions, please feel free to reach out to: prisma@ecc.de.
